Philosophy Statement for Performers Auditioning for this Production

Silver Scene Players (SSP) serves to improve its community. Performers, directors, crew members, technical supporters, and others involved are expected to be respectful of one another. As an organization dependent on volunteers, SSP requests those involved share in the work and success of the production, which might include set build, promotional efforts, running lines with other actors, and other production needs. These efforts all contribute to the SSP mission of bringing the joy of theatre to the community in order to "give back" by supporting local non-profit organizations.
